We’re hiring!

We are on the search for an Executive Director to lead our organization forward. The successful candidate will possess a wide range of visionary, strategic planning and tactical leadership/operational skills including but not limited to:

- Demonstrated knowledge of and experience in essential components of successful non-profit leadership, including but not limited to: Budget management, financial acumen, communication savvy, operational wherewithal and technologically proficiency
- Demonstrated success in increasing revenues and/or philanthropic investments
- A proven, easily understood and described history of maintaining relationships that foster a spirit of collaboration
- Equipped with the gift of inspiring others through effective storytelling, written, and interpersonal skills
- Content expertise on relevant coaching and consulting to nonprofit organizations
- Knowledge and understanding of local (Raleigh-Durham) community resources and the ability to engage and partner these resources with the organization's strategic objectives preferred.
- Familiarity with North Carolina and relevant federal and state laws governing the operation of a nonprofit preferred

Salary is commensurate with the requirements of the position and will be within the $65,000 – $75,000/year range. An additional annual stipend of $10,000 is awarded for personal use. The position can be remote from a daily work location standpoint, but applicants must be located in (or be willing to relocate to) the Greater Triangle region of North Carolina.

If you know of any community members who meet the criteria, please have them apply by sending a resume and cover letter to: board@esctriangle.org